MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 27.

SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION (Including Postage), PER MONTH, 30c.; PER YEAR, $3.50.

VOL. 29.....NO. 9,869

ered at the Post-Office at New York as second-clas-

Circulation Books Always Open.

PARKS FOR THE PROPLE.

The small parks to be made in the lower portion of the city, like the opening of Stny vesant Park in the evening, will be of great value to the people south of Fourteenth street. One of these breathing spots was completed and thrown open for public use in the Ninth Ward last week. It is called Jack. son Park and is located at the junction of several streets at Eighth avenue and Greenwich avenue at West Thirteenth street. The park, which is a pleasant relief to the dry, hot streets, has been crowded every evening since its opening, mainly with women and children, and has already become a favorite

The city has expended a great deal of money on Central Park and will increase the investment largely in the parks in the annexed territory. Of course they are all desirable public improvements, and residents from all parts of the city, who have time and money to enable them to reach these splendid pleasure grounds, enjoy them fully. But there are many thousands of working people who never get an opportunity to visit them, except perhaps once a week. To these less favored residents, the small downtown parks, where they can rest and enjoy comparatively cool breezes in the evenings, after the hot toil of the day, are priceless boons. Too many of such welcome spaces cannot be supplied in the crowded tenement-house districts, and their advocacy is one of the best features of Mr. HEWITT's administration.

The working people have been taxed for the upper parks, which they seldom enjoy. Now give them all the small parks they want downtown for their own use and for the health and safety of their children.

LET THE WORK GO ON.

Two objects are to be accomplished by the Aqueduct investigation now being made by the FASSETT Committee. The one is to secure such a complete reform in the Aqueduct management as will insure the more honest expenditure of the people's money and better work by contractors in the future than we have had in the past. The other is the exposure and if possible the prosecution and punishment of those who may have placed themselves within reach of the law by corrupt and dishonest practices in connection with a public work.

The change in the Commission, if followed by such removals of subordinates as may be shown by the evidence to be necessary, will protect the people against frauds in the future and properly guard the expenditure of the millions that are yet to be invested in the storage and distribution of the increased water supply. As to the misdeeds of the past, it seems likely that the customary exodus to Canada has already commenced in connection with Aqueduct affairs. The provisions of the law in regard to disnonest practices are stringent, and if any Aqueduct Commissioner or employee can be proved to have accepted undue favors from contractors, or to have allowed the city to incur loss or damage, either through carelessness, favoritism or venality, he can be punished both by fine and imprisonment, The work of the FASSETT Committee is not vet completed.

DEATH OR MATRIMONY.

That highly decorous resort, Bar Harbor, has its sensation. About two weeks ago two families were thrown into grief by the supposed drowning of a young couple, Mr. J. H. REED, of Albany, and Miss Annie Milligen of New Orleans, who went canoeing in the evening and never returned. It was supposed that their cance had been run down by a steamer, especially as an overturned boat and a coat were found after the disappear-

The story is now set affoat that it is a case of elopement and not of drowning. A man has been found who states positively that the parties are alive and well. Of course every. body will rejoice if the affair turns out a drama instead of a tragedy, and ends in a wedding feast instead of a funeral. But it scarcely seems credible that the young people, if alive, would fail to relieve the terrible anxiety of their friends, unless, indeed, they are too happy to think of anybody but them-

THE FIRST STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention meets at Saratoga to-morrow, and the "slate" for Governor will be put through without opposition. Ex-Senator WARNER MILLER is to be the nominee for Governor, and, as it is a harmony " ticket, favored by the anti-Mrtex factions, the nomination is probably the ongest that could be made on that side. For the Lieutenant-Governor's place there are many aspirants, and it is understood that the selection of the candidate is to be left to the Convention.

High License policy was supported by the Republicans of the Senate and Assembly last session, with a few exceptions, and principle is indorsed by a great many Democrats. In advocating high tariff platform, nator MILLER is evidently disposed to make a clear issue on the question against

Gov. Hill, who will probably be his antag- WAITING FOR MORE JOKES. onist in the contest.

The Convention will be largely attended and promises to be an enthusiastic gathering.

The Etruria's captain showed scant courtesy to the enthusiastic friends of JARR KIL-BAIN, who went out on a tug to meet the incoming Etruria and capture the pugilistic hero. He positively refused to allow "any of that gang" to approach the steamer or to take JARR off, although "de boys" were armed with a Custom-House permit, a doctor of the Health Department and an officer. This will throw cold water on reception booms for distinguished tra- allers on their return. It will not, however, interfere with the reception awaiting our own CHAUNCEY. Mr. Depew's friends will receive more consideration than was extended to the devoted followers of JAKE the bruiser.

The Giants continue to do splendid work and the chances that the pennant will come to New York increase. Our boys ought to get their presentation bats at once. It will encourage them to still greater efforts to carry off the prize and the glory.

The City of New York got to Queenstown esterday morning, one day, one hour and thirty-seven minutes behind the Umbria. The captain denies that it was a race. The Umbria, however, insists that it was. Of Yesterday was a great day for Coney island. If the present weather lasts the Coney Island hotels will continue to reap a harvest after the more distant summer renorts are deserted.

GOOD THINGS IN MARKET.

Flounders Scents Pompano, 30 cents. Lafayettes, 10 cents. Strined bass. 20 cents. Celery, 15 cents a bunch Smelts, 20 cents a pound. Cauliflower, 10 to 25 cents. Muskmeions, 5 to 20 cents. Tomatnes, 5 cents a quart. Plums, 20 to 40 cents a dozen Grapes, 10 to 90 cents a pound. Lima beans, 25 cents a half peck. Lemons, twenty-five for 25 cents. Lettuce, three bunches for 10 cents. String beans, 15 cents a small measure. Sweet potatoes, 15 cents a small measure. Pears, 30 to 50 cents adozen: $1,50 to $2.25 basket.

Peaches, 75 cents to $1,50 a basket; 20 to 40 cents

POLITICAL POINTS.

The announcement that President Cleveland ha subscribed $10,000 for the legitimate expenses of the National Democratic Committee has given great satisfaction to Democrats.

Then it is said Secretary Whitney has chipped in 10,000, Congressman Scott $10,000 and Col. Calvin S. Brice $10,000, Alderman Patrick Divver has contributed $100.

Cornelius N. Bliss, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, has returned from Europe. He is talked of as the Republican nominee for Mayor.

Tammany Hall will not take an army to the Buffalo Convention. The Wigwam pilgrims will no number more than 200.

Ex-Mayor Grace is no longer considered in the Gubernatorial race. It is now binted that; ex-Mayor Grace has rested his eye on a third term at the City stall. The County Democrats will renominate Abram 8. Hewitt, should they fall to unite with Tammany Hall. This would prevent Mr. Grace's renomina

Ex-Sheriff James O'Brien is hoay at Saratogs of ganizing a party. It promises to be a free-land

WORLDLINGS.

Pive prominent Louisiana newspapers are owned and edited by women. The chief of them is the New Orleans Picapune, which is controlled by Mrs. E. J. Nicholson. A colored woman in Atlanta, Ga., is the roung-thirty-eight years old, is herself the mother of twenty-seven chudren. The official language of New Mexico is Spanish. bich is used in the courts, and in the Council and Assembly, Legislative debates are carried on the

est of thirty-seven children, and although not yet spanish and laws are framed in that language, Cyrus Triplett, who died at the age of eighty-two years near Akron, O., recently, had never been outside the limits of the county but once, and in all his lifetime rode only five miles on a railroad.

Admiral Porter, of the navy, is seventy, seven years of age and bids fair to live for many years to come. The secret of his wonderful preservation s that he has lived plainly. He seldom drinks tea or coffee, but is a moderate amoker. "Never ge wet" is a rule for preserving the health that he has strictly adhered to all his life. Even during his service in the war, it is said, he never got wet no matter how hard it rained.

Deceivers Ever.

Stella (her first party)-Ob, Clarissa, what do you think that lovely Count de Friskie said to me? Clarissa (with indifference)-And what did the lovely Count say to you?

Stella-Well, you know, after we had danced together five or six times he begged of me to give him one little bud from my bouquet, which he said he would enshrine in the innermost recesses of his heart of hearts forever and forever. Then he said something in French which I did not understand, but it sounded awfuily nice, but, Clarissa, what do you think he could have meant?
Clarissa (with more indifference)—Nothing. He made the same speech to me.

Where Death Came Suddenly.

found dead in bed late last night at his residence, Mr. Millen demands that "a radical high tariff plank" be placed in the platform, and his desire will doubtless be gratified. The desire will doubtless be gratified. The core ner has been notified and will investigate but Killed at His Work. Henry Canwald, aged twenty-three years, while at work in the carriage factory at 150 East Thirtyfirst street, was instantly killed by the breaking of an emery wheel. His body was taken to the Morgue and the Coroner was notified.

MERVOURNESS in infants need not be feared when

MR. WILLIAM NYE, AFTER DIGESTING

A Great Danger Averted.

"Unless you give me aid," said a beggar to a benevolent lady, "I am afraid I shall have to resort to something which I should greatly dislike to do." The lady handed him $1 and compassionately asked: "What is it, poor man, that I saved you from?" Work," was the mournful reply.

HARRY MAYER, 200 East Seventieth street.

New York, Aug 21.

A Valuable Business Man.

"So you think you can dress a show win-dow so the ladies will all stop and look at it, do you?" asked the manager of a dryoods store of an applicant for work.
"Yes, sir, I do."
"Well, sir, what is the first thing you

I'd put a big mirror in the window and "That's enough, young man. We don't want you as an employee. We'll take you as a partner." EDWARD HECHT, 331 Fifty-eighth street, city.

One on the Videous

One on the viscous.

Brennan, McCormick and Myers, the ward detective triumvirste of the Twelfth Precinct, were grouped at a corner in the district one night about three weeks ago when they were nervously approached by a sprig of an urchin about 3 feet in height x 2 feet in dirt, who whistlingly inquired: "Are yous an urchin about 3 feet in heightirt, who whistlingly inquired: 'tectiffs?"

Yes," replied McCormick for himself and speaking for Myers and Brennan, "and we're religious terrors, too, and just came in on a cowboy train. What do you want of Me farder wants ver to take a man in wots makin' a racket in der house," answered the lad.

The Vidocq trio learned from the boy where his father domiciled and then sent him away. Together they visited the house of the alleged trouble. Arriving there they met a man at the street entrance and Myers asked: "Where's that individual who is making a racket in this house?"

"On the top floor, front," replied the man.

man.
Six $1,200-a-year legs wearily tramped to the apex of the building. Door of front room, top floor, was wide open. Man seated at a long table studiously at work finishing a tennis racket!

As for the boy—well, Messrs. B., McC. and M. have advertised for him for over a week, and promise to remunerate the deliverer liberally and "no questions asked."

449 East Houston street, city, Aug. 24. Bad Pun by a Theatrical Man.

George-Chawles, old boy, do you know what play follows "The Queen's Mate" at the Broadway Theatre?
Chawles—Yes, chappie—Louis Aldrich in
the "Kaffir Diamond."

the "Kaffir Diamond."

George—Thanks, awfully; but if we're Aldrich we don't "Kaffir Diamond." Ha, ha!

A. A. Mc.

A Fireboy's Chestnut.

Quizzical Jim Smith, the leather-strip manipulator of the steam apparatus of Engine Company No. 11, was one night seated with a coterie of the boys in the neighborhood on the four-wheeled pavilion commonly known and recognized as a truck, and situate outside of the company's house. Jim is famously noted for the many good and amusing stories he has told in his time alamusing stories he has told in his time, although a number of them are covered with a Munchausen coating. On this particular night Jim was in a sterling mood for "yarning," so he complacently unwound himself and began.

To you know hows some time ago an "Do you know, boys, some time ago an alarm came in from the box corner of Deslarm came in from the box corner of De-lancey and Columbia streets, and we started out on the 'run.' We found there was a re-ported fire in Kanenbley's provision house. Our men searched high and low to discover the location of the fire and its origin, but not a trace could be found, so the cap ordered us home. Before taking my seat on the 'ma-chine'! thought I would make a personal in-vestigation, which I did, and soon learned that the fire was caused by a workman on the ANGLES. New York, 449 East Houston street, Aug.23.

A Stage Story.

To the Editor of the Evening World:

I do not think the following was ever in print and am of the opinion that it is worth publicity. I was on the stage at the time:

During the early part of the war Wilkes Booth was playing "Lichard III." When it came to the part where the messenger comes in and reports to Richard, "My lord, the Duke of Buckingham is taken," the hapless "supe" reported, "My lord, the Duke of Buckingham is taken, and we've cut off his head," thus cutting Richard out of his part, viz.: "Off with his head! So much for Buckingham!" But nothing daunted and in true consonance with his part, Booth immediately said: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant: take this for thy reward," and with this answer Booth kicked the messenger bodily off the stage.

73 Third avenue, Brooklyn. To the Editor of The Evening World : bodily off the stage.
73 Third avenue, Brooklyn.

Walting for the New Aqueduct.

Tramp—Say, boss, will yer lend us ickel? I'm near dead for a drink. Citizen (pointing to a pump near by)—Go over there and get a drink. Tramp—Oh, no; I'm not goin' ter drink.
Tramp—Oh, no; I'm not goin' ter drink any water till the new aqueduct is finished.
Betcher life on that, boss.
CHRISTIAN T. OTT.
6 Greenwich street, New York, Aug. 24.

The Mule Fully Justified. Old Farmer Hoops is dead. His old mule kicked him to death, and it was his own fault. While in town yesterday he hearkened to the voice of a temperance league leader and gave him a dollar, which replenished the leaguer's demijohn with "flat," and sent the colonel sober to his mule, who stood at the same old hitching post of forty years' standing. The mule didn't know the colonel coming to him that way, and of course kicked him to death. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

GEO' M. DITTOE,

Editor Kentucky State Journal.

A Preliminary. [From Fine.] Bride-Darling, will you let me cook your break fast to-morrow ? Husband—Certainly, pet. (Goes off.) Bride—Where are you going ? Husband—To make my will. POSTMEN WIN AT LAST,

A Schedule Which Will Give Them the Pull

Benefit of the Eight-Hour Law. According to official authority the letter carriers of this city are to have the full benefit of the Eight-Hour law, recently passed Congress. This has been brought about after long and persistent effort on the part of the long and persistent effort on the part of the carriers and their friends, and they are consequently feeling much relieved.

Col. Bates, General Superintendent of the Free Delivery System of the United States Mail Service, has been in the city several days inquiring into the free delivery system, and it is said has prepared a schedule whereby the carriers will be divided into three divisions, each of which is to be employed but eight hours a day for one week, and each division will alternate so as to equalize the hours of labor, thus giving every man a fair and equal show. It is also understood that in order to still further bring all hands under the provisions of the Eight-Hourlaw, additional carriers will soon be appointed and an appropriation made by the Post-Office Department to pay their salaries. Postmaster-General Dickinson has written Postmanter-General Dickinson has written to Mr. Briggs, the timekeeper lately sum-marily discharged by Mr. Pearson, that he will inquire into the matter. Discharges are made in the Post-Office without any reason being given for the same, a notice being sent to the discharged person merely announcing that his services are no longer required.

THE PARK WILL SOON OPEN.

Arrangements for Its Lighting to Be Mad To-Morrow Afternoon.

The gates of Stuyvesant Park will soon be left open in the evening, and the people living in that vicinity will have the oppormnity to enjoy the park as it was meant they should do.

Comptroller Myers is in to wn, and will be present at the special meeting of the Gas Commission which has been called for to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Mayor's The meeting is called specially to consider the question of lighting Stuyvesant Park, and will undoubtedly result in a satisfactory arrangement for such lighting.

Then the plans for lighting will be carried out as soon as possible, and the park will be out as soon as possible, and the para will be prepared for the reception of people in the evening.

The privilege of enjoying the attractions of Stuyvesant Park in the evening will be fully appreciated by hundreds who will also appreciate the efforts of The Evening World in their backets. n their behalf. No one who has ever looked through the bars of the fence surrounding the park on a hot evening and observed how cool and re-freshing it looked inside, but has wished he could get into the midst of the coolness, and now the opportunity will surely come.

ROBERT GARRETT IN RETREAT.

He Is a Very Sick Man, but New Jerse Villa Life May Do Him Good.

Robert Garrett has been safely and quietly emoved from the Brevoort House and taken to the New Jersey retreat, which had been carefully prepared for his reception. Mr. Garrett and his party went by carriage and special Erie train early yesterday mornand special Eric train early yesterday morning to Ringwood, where carriages were again taken, this time to the old Miller villa, which was the final destination. The villa is a big Gothic structure built of stone and has for a long time been closed. It is near Mayor Hewitt's country seat, and much of the preparation for Mr. Garrett's reception was under Mr. Heritt's precoal supervision.

Mr. Hewitt's personal supervision.
On the way to the villa Mr. Garrett talked almost constantly and in a generally irrational way. His sickness has changed him terribly. He lays all his misfortunes to Jay Gould. Gould.

Mr. Garrett's physicians say he will have his good and bad days at the villa, as he did at the hotel, but they cannot tell anything as to the final outcome or what turn his

THE NEW YORK DIDN'T RACE.

Her Machinery Was New and Her Engine Stopped Twelve Hours.

At 7.10 A. M. yesterday, twenty-five hours and thirty-five minutes after the Umbria reached Queenstown, the big new Inman steamer City of New York straggled into that port. The race was over and she was badly beaten.

Her engineer said she had not been put to her best efforts, as he had refused to allow her engines to be driven at a high rate of speed, owing to the newness of the ma-chinery. One of the engines had to be stopped four hours on the 20th, and there other stoppages, making a total of twelve hours.

The Umbria's time to Queenstown was days 10 hours 35 minutes, and that of the City of New York was 7 days 12 hours and 14

The One Thing Needful.

Mr. C. de Burst-Aw, waltaw, what did cook use in cutting these mutton chops ? Anatole—A cleaver, sir, of course! Mr. C. de Hurst—Aw. good! Bring me one!

A Close Distinction. (From the Nebraska State Journal.)
 Say, Brohnson, is that lady yonder your wife?"

Brohnson (wearily)—Not exactly. I am that lady's husband. New Faces at the Hotels.

At the Fifth Avenue are Andrew Cummings, of Chicago; J. A. Hosmer, of Ohio, and W. B. Sparke, of Macon. Capt. H. Hodges, U. S. A., of West Point, and T. W. Holmes, of Montreal, are among the Grand Hotel guests.

At the St. James are R. C. Kevens, of St. Louis; B. H. Field, of Milwaukee, and F. A. Richardson, of Washington. Among the Bartholdi Hotel guests are J. L. Mor-genrath, oi Louisville; B. F. Hurford, of Boston, and Gill Boyle, of Louisville.

H. Philips, of Oakland, Cal.; B. Roth, of Rochester; C. A. Klin, of Roston, and Capt. & S. Pague, U. S. A., are at the Hoffman House, Ex-Mayor Ferdinand C. Latrope, of Baitimore; R. H. Flumb, of Buffalo; H. C. Force, of St. Louis, and A. S. White, of Scotland, are at the Brunswick.

At the Gilsey House are: E. M. Russell, of St. Louis; C. A. Keitz, of Savannah; T. J. Devine and J. B. Stuart, of Rochester, and S. H. Rich-ardson, of Chicago. Mrs. G. l. Lorillard and the Count d'Agreda are at the Albemarie, also G. W. Parent, R. Lefon-taine and D. Beusolere, of Montreal, and H. Fer-guson Cowan, of England.

At the Sturtevant: J. F. Crohan, of Savannah; G. H. Ellingsworth, of Florida; C. J. bymonds, of West Point: F. D. Abernathy, of Burlington, O., and W. C. Lyons, of Macon, Ga. Prominent at the Astor Bouse are C. B. Snyder, of Chicago; H. C. Sedam, of Wiselling, W. Va.; A. L. Flack, of Lifton, C.; G. M. Flauer, of Tolede, C.; J. H. Reed, of Boston; J. J. Cummings of Scranton; John Taben, of Dalias; F. H. Franks, of Chicago, and T. McNulty, of Mobile.

FROM THE CITY'S WHIRL.

DRIFT CAUGHT HERE AND THERE BY "EVENING WORLD" REPORTERS.

You'll Be Surprised to Learn That the Landlord Has His Story. Tenants, as a rule, always have fault to find with their landlords. A lock is out of order, a door needs fixing, the range needs repairing or something else is the matter, and if the landlord doesn't have it attended to immediately, there is always more or less growling indulged in. An Evening World reporter, who heard the landlord's side of the story, came to the conclusion that if these self-same tenants knew what the landlord had to put up with knew what the landlord had to put up with they would not wonder if he was out of humor once in a while.

"Why," said a landlord, "I have refused to allow any children in the house because they are so destructive.

"At the present time I have all but one flat occupied. Up to a couple of weeks ago I had had two empty floors for three months. The family that occupied one of them gave me notice on the second day of May that they were going to move. Why couldn't they have told me a couple of weeks before, so that I might have got a tenant?

"As I was saying, I let one flat about two weeks ago. I have had many applicants, but they always found fault.

"One of them was a doctor. He wanted a door cut from the middle room to the hall-way, for, he said, he didn't want his patients to meet in entering or going out. He wanted one door for them to enter and the other way, for, he said, he didn't want his paterns to meet in entering or going out. He wanted one door for them to leave by. I would have been willing to cut the door through, but he wouldn't say how long he would stay, so I couldn't risk it.

"A man called to look at the flat. He had "A man called to look at the flat. He had five women with him, besides his wife.

"She was a frail little thing, and didn't have much to say. She seemed to be satisfied with the accommodations I had to offer, but the others didn't like the place.

"He was governed more by what they said than by his wife's advice, and consequently he went away with his nose in the air.

"My last applicant was a little old woman. After looking the place over she found fault with the halis, said they were dirty and dark and smelled bad. I knew it wasn't so and informed her of the fact. Then she said that the rooms were too small, and, in fact, she made herself so disagreeable that I was about to say: 'Well, madam, if you think you can do any better for the money you had she made herself so disagreeable that I was about to say: 'Well, madam, if you think you can do any better for the money you had better do it,' when she suddenly said she would take the place, and, better yet, paid a half month's rent in advance.

"You see we have to contend with all sorts of people, and are insulted very often; so is it any wonder if a landlord does appear cranky sometimes?"

Lawyer Who Found Rimself in Happy Standing Among Cracksmen. Emanuel Friend, more familiarly known

The'ps write de ca'tor'ls.

Citisen - You do?

Uncie Rastus-Ob, yes; I keeps de files offen as " Manny," is next to " Plain Abe " Hummel, the smallest practising lawyer in New York.

Though petite in stature, like "Bill' Howe's partner, his intellect is by no means diminutive, for he has the reputation of knowing more than a score of legal men, who far outclass him in avoirdupois.

Manny is a wag. His fame in that connec tion is almost world-wide, and he is the very life of a dinner party.

But often as he has defended burglars at the bar of justice, never until a very recent morning did he encounter a follower of Bill Sykes's trade in his real wicked state. Some where about 2 o'clock on the morning in question Mr. Friend was awakened by a noise coming apparently from the dining-room of his residence.

He made his way noiselessly to that apartnent, and throwing the door suddenly open, confronted the knights of the jimmy trying o open the sideboard. One of the burglars turned his dark lantern on the intruder, and then, with an exclama-tion of surprise, sang out:

"Well, if dere ain't Manny Friend! How are yer, old fei?"

Both men recognized in the small man, clad in a robe de nuit, a person who had on several occasions saved them from going to Sing Sing.

Mr. Friend, after responding to the saluta-

Mr. Friend, after responding to the salutations, quietly observed:
"Don't let me interrupt your business for one moment, gentlemen. I only came down to say that in case you find anything I'll divide with you."

The midnight marauders laughed a hollow, mocking laugh, and then suddenly remembered having a crib to crack in another part of the town. Before leaving, however, they been duly tried on the charges presented by certain delegates, and therefore ordered its Harmonizing Committee to settle the difficulty between the Foundrymen's Association and Iron-Moulders' Union No. 25.

The section will probably meet again Wadnesday night. gave Mr. Friend a choice perfecto, which exhibits to sceptical friends who doubt the truth of the story. The Tin and Sheet-Iron Worker's Protective Union has made a request of all employers in the Sweet Girls Aren't Scarce, but They All Like Their Gum.

WANTED!
A Sweet Girl to attend this Stand, Fiirts, Novel-Readers and Gum-Unewers need not apply.
A. E. WILLIS.

That is what is written on a card which hangs up in a stand in the Sea Beach Palace at Coney Island.

Findlay, O.

George McVey will ride a real Bucephalus on Labor Day and all the union plano-makers will proudly follow in his lead.

Edward Finklestone, President of the Harbers' Union, was the presiding genius at the Central Labor Union meeting yesterd. y.

A new silken banner, costing $105, will be carried in the Labor Day parade by the Tin and Sheet Iron Warkers! Prof. A. E. Willis, proprietor of the stand, is a physiognomist, and if you are a sweet girl and want to attend his stand, you had better not try to fool him. As the card indi-cates, if you are a flirt, novel-reader or gumchewer, there is no use of your answering chewer, there is no use of your answering the advertisement.

"For if a girl is a flirt," argues Prof. Willis, "she will not attend to business. I have had experience with them all. I know that if a flirt were behind my counter she would be there just for the sake of smiling at the boys that pass, and if 1 left for a few minutes have would leave the standard or un itself. she would leave the stand to run itself while she strolled with her young men.

"As for novel-readers, their minds are poisoned so that they are not fit for work, and I wouldn't have a gum-chewer under any consideration." 'It is queer," continued Mr. Willis. " that although my advertisement has been hang-ing in a conspicuous place for days no one has answered it. It naturally makes one think that the sweet girls are very scarce nowa-

Men Call Them Tramps, but They Are Gentlemen of Elegant Leisure. One straying through the City Hall Park will be struck by the touch of luxurious ease which seems to mark the tramps and povertystricken men, women and children who fill t in the afternoon. They are for the time, at all events, people of elegant leisure.

Two out of every five men are reading an evening paper. They sit there on the benches, in their "jumpers" and slouchy, greasy garments, digesting the news of the Several women and several young day. Several women and several young boys are sitting on the curbstone by the asphalt way. They are lazily fanning themselves with gaudy pictorial fans, advertising fans, but which have quite a gay air.

A mob of kids are playing "cat" with a broken clothespin, and another crowd are engage at ball. One man, with a little todling child, is watching its small steps as it circles about with anxious complacency. All seem recreating themselves even those that seem recreating thems-lyes, even those that droop over the backs of the seats in easy slumber. Yes, verily, "the Lord tempers the wind to the shorn lamb."

Thoughtless Boy Who Nearly Made Trouble for a Big Policeman.

Scene-the Battery. Also seen, a German sitting on the lower step of the stairs to the L platform. The German, soothed by the cool air and comforted by a glass or two of lager, has lapsed into slumber.

FUN FOR AFTER DINNER

Showing the Pottery Collection.

Mrs. Marridwell (of Boston, to Uncle Ephraim from Maine)-Now I want to show you my pottery

"Weil, well, you have everything to dew with, Emmeline. I must say."

"Right in the parior—here it is—seventy large and handsome pieces."

"Good gracious, Emmeline! So all them's your'n?"

"All mine."
"Whew! you Boston folks dew like beans, don't

No Serious Results.

They stood beneath the stars, and silent as the heart beats of the night looked far away into the

"Is that Mars?" he whispered, as he slipped his

An Assistant Editor.

Citizen-I hear you are in the newspaper bust ness, Uncle Rastus. Uncle Rastus—Yes, sah ; I'se er iournalis' new.

A Fair Proposition.

[From the San Francisco Examiner.]

Lawyer—Whe—um! (With animation) Aha! I'll ell you what—suppose we exchange—you run the fine and let me clerk.

reakers roar on the wild seashore, she sadly re-

Her Favorite Vegetable.

[From the Pittaburg Chronicle.]
The old maid's invorite vegetable is to mate, O.

BACK IN THE FOLD.

The Old Metal Section's Suspension Declared Illegal by the Central Union.

The trials and tribulations of the old Metal ection of the Central Labor Union are now about to end, it is hoped, by the irrepressible

The central body has declared the suspension out of order because the section had not

Tin-Workers Ask Higher Wages.

trade for an increase of wages from the present figure, $8 a day, to $8.50, to take effect Sept. 1. A special meeting will be held soon for the rur-pose of taking section in the mat r, and members who fail to attend are hable to a line of $1 each.

Among the Workers.

A new union of bakers has been organized at Findlay, O.

ied in the Lator Day parade by the Tin and Sheet ron Workers' Protective Union.

The Central Labor Union has announced its de-ermination to oppose Mayor Hewitt at the ballot ox because of his opposition to organized labor.

Grand Marshal Sullivan has mastered Upton's tactics for the Labor Day parade, and has tackled a merry-go-round, to get used to norseback riding.

Robert P. Farrell's place as Walking Delegate of the United Order of American Carpenters has not been filled by William Robinsou, as erroneously

The Arbitration Committee of the Central Labor Union has reported that the New York Woven Wire Mattreas Company had no just grounds for reducing the wages of its employees 38% per cent.

A complaint having been made by the Progressive Painters' Union that non-union men are employed in doing the painting on the Park Theatre, a committee of the Central Labor Union will call on Mr. Harrigan and request him to employ union men.

The paper-hangers and decorators of Jersey City have organized a local assembly of the Kuights of Labor, and are attached to National District Assem-bly No. 210. An installation of officers will take illace to-morrow night in Germania Hall, Jersey avenue and First street.

James McKim, delegate from the United Order of American Carpenters, is a subject for investiga-tion by a committee of the Central Labor Union be-cause he has Julied a Cleveland and Thurman clut.

Mr. ackim disjutes the right of any labor organization to dictate to him the political course he shall delegates who refused to be suspended.

Notes of the Campaign.

Seashore Reflections

Lawyer-And what wages do you expect?

Applicant-Twenty dollars a week.

diamond-studded shirt front of the sky.

collection, Uncle Ephraim.

you ?'

up the street.

'TWAS GOOD FOR THE BABIES A boy of about fifteen, who was not at all asleep, walked up to the dozing German and THE SEA AIR BREATHED IN ON "THE removed his watch, that it might not be WORLD'S" GREAT EXCURSION.

weight on his stomach and interfere with his weight on his stomach and interiere with the nap.

At this moment Dennis Sullivan, proprietor of a saloon on Grand street and post-trader on Liberty Island, showed up, whacked the small boy and called a big policeman.

"Here am I a-doin' yer dhuty for yer," said Dennis.

The "cop" walked over, and after a few repreachful words to the young thief, probably to the effect that he shouldn't bother him by stealing watches on his post, walked off. So did the boy.

If he had arrested the boy he might have had to appear in court against him, and perhaps have lost some hours of his time off. Two men helped the German and his watch up the street. How the Mothers and Their Children Piled Upon the Barges, and How Glad They Were to Greet "The Evening World" Physician-An Elegant Sail, a Hearty

A red-letter day, indeed, in the lives of nany a mother and youngster was that on which they sailed away on THE WORLD's fresh-air excursion.

Lunch and a Regretful Return.

Wan-faced, hollow-cheeked matrons carried in their arms puny infants, some of whom looked as if every breath would be the last. Others were not only carrying infants in their arms, but had at their heels, clinging wearily to their skirts, from two to five young children, some scarcely able to walk, and all bearing traces of sickness and want. All these wended their way to the various piers where were moored the commodique barges which were to be drawn away by the elegant steamer Pomona. After all that could be taken aboard had been got on the barges, and the health officers, two of whom were stationed on each barge, had looked over the mothers and their charges, the lines were cast off and the various barges brought down the bay by tugs, They all met at the appointed rendezvous, and while the band played and the children danced with give, the flotilla started up the danced with giee, the flotilla started up the Hudson.

Owing to the heat Admiral Hopson, who had charge of the excursion, changed the course, and the flotilla started down the bay to the Narrows.

Passing steamers and other craft saluted the gayly decorated barges as they passed, and Prof. Friedlander's band played as if for dear life. The children danced and cried until 2 o'clock, when luncheon was served, It was refreshing to see the little ones carrying off huge armfuls of bread and cans of milk, and chowder and beef stew, and to note with what gusto they ate the good things pro-milk, and chowder and beef stew, and to note with what gusto they ate the good things provided.

On the down trip The Evening World physician had established an office in the ladies' cabin, and many of his former patients, whom he had met in his rounds, came to greet him.

Little Johnny Stain, of Goods street when arm about her taper waist and gazed upon a glit-tering orb in the distant blue.

'No, it ain't," she exclaimed, jerking away;
'it's mine; and if think you are hugging mother,
I can tell you you are mistaken."

The matter was amicably adjusted before anyto greet him.

Little Johnny Stein, of Goerck street, who claims that the big-hearted doctor is his uncle, was on board, too, but did not require the doctor's services. Said Johnny:

"He's me uncle, and when I wus sick he cured me."

And Johnny started off to punch the heads of a youngsier who refused to take the medicine the doctor held before him.

medicine the doctor held before him.

"Muschs, doctor, dear," said a large Irishwoman who carried a pretty baby in her arms, "and when'll ye be about again?"

The doctor informed her that her that he would not be around any more until next would not be around any more until next summer.

"Oh, my dear man! I laid great store by you. My little man has got along so good with you."

"The baby's improved wonderfully," said a frail little woman to the doctor. "God bless you, sir, and THE EVENING WORLD.

"Say, doctor, baby's very sick," said another, and a soothing potion was administered. The baby's eyes opened and it smiled gratefully, and bowing her thanks the fond mother walked off.

"I notice a marked improvement in the ond mother walked off.

"I notice a marked improvement in the children," said the doctor to the reporter, and the sail will undoubtedly be the cause of saying many of the lives of the little [From the Chicago Inter Ocean.]
While the lady of household listens gladly to the flects upon the hired breakers that are feeding their "cousins" from the finest china in the fam-of saving many of the lives of the little ones."

Old Dover street dock, where the first landing was made on the return, was packed as soon as the burges were tied fast. As if they knew they were near home and their day's outing was over the babies began to crow and cry.

What a change there was in the appearance of the mothers and babies when they returned.

Instead of the careworn expressions of the mothers and the sickly look of the babies, bright eyes and happy faces were everywhere to be seen, the wonderful effect of fresh see.

air.

Before leaving the barges the crowd, babies and all, gathered about the doctor, and, while the mothers shook him by the hand, the babies showed their appreciation in smiles and crowings.

'Three cheers for the doctor and THE WORLD!" shouted one mother.

'Hurrah!" answered the crowd, babies and all, and THE WORLD excursion was over.

Russian Artist, Soldier, Traveller, The Russian soldier-artist, Vassill Verestchagin, was among the Etruria's 700 passengers who rived yesterday, and he went directly to the Hoffman House.

He is a great traveller, as well as an artist, and an acute observer, with well-formed opinions. Personally, he is a medium-sized man, with full dark beard, black anappy eyes, an oval face and aquiline nose. His manners, owing to his considerable life in Paria, have a distinctly Gallic tings. He speaks English very fluently. His stay in New York will be quite lengthy.

Answers to Correspondents. W. L.—You cannot vote here at the coming elec-as you will not then have resided a full year in this State.

Constant Reader. —THE EVENING WORLD word-building prize was won by Mr. Arthur Beach, of 800 Sumner avenue, Brooklyn, whose list, after revision, contained 1,485 words. P. Detonan and J. O'Halloran. -Various statements were made as to the place of Gen. Sherian's birth, but his mother settled the question by stating that he was born at Somerset, O. March 6.

The Printing Trades Section of the Central Labor Union will meet to-morrow night to make final arrangements for the Labor Day parade.

George Warner, marshal of the Housesmith's Union for Labor Day, reports that all the members of that organization will turn out next Monday. P. O'Connor. —To give a private citizen a consideration to prevent him testifying at a trial in any public court is bribery, and a person giving or receiving such consideration may be convicted of felony.

M. J. J.—A twenty-five-cent piece of 1858, with arrows, is worth from $3 to $5. The other coins you ask about bring only their face value. Go to W. P. strown, 114 Nassau street, or H. P. Smits, 858 Broadway.

News Summary. Forest fires in Upper Michigan cause loss of life.

Nine new cases of yellow fever reported at Jack-onville yesterday. Jay Gould was interviewed at Saratoga; politi-cally he favors tariff reform. The Pennsylvania Railway Company will build $500,000 shops at Altoona, to employ 1,000 new Walter Keech says that all members of Lodge No. 5 of the United Order of American Carpenters should be at the lodge-room, 189 Bowery, at 8.30 next Monday morning, to answer roll-call for the Lagor Day muster. Large deposits of nickel have been discovered in Logan County, Kan., and great excitement re-It having been reported that Charles Lenz has Mrs. S. M. Battingsley puts $1,000 in bills in her pustic, which she forgot in a Kansas City hotel. been collecting money from union prewers without authority, the Central Labor Union has officially announced that Lens is not a delegate to that bely and had no authority to act for it in any capacity, the got it back, however, Fanny, the lovely daughter of W. W. Boyington, a wealthy Chicagoan, cloped with her father's Eng-ish concuman. She has been forgiven.

Judge Cooley, of Michigan, Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, made a quiet investigation of the railway system at Castle Gar-

The yacht Mystery, which was capized in Jamaica Bay a year ago, drowning twenty-s ven persons, is again at the nottom of the bay with a load of coal on board.

Summer Weakness

Is quickly overcome by the toning, reviving, and bloodourifying qualities of Hood's Sarasparilla. This popula nedicine drives off that tired feeling and ourse sick estify that Hood's Sareaparille "makes the week

Becretary Matt Barr, of the Central Labor Union's Political Committee of Ten, has sent to 150 newspapers printed copies of the call for the State Labor Convention, to be held at Troy Sept. 17. Copies have also been sent to 500 labor organizations inrough the State, and 603 more will be forwarded to-day. aches, could not sleep well, did not have much appetite, and had no ambition to work. I have taken less than a bottle of Hood's flaresparilia and feel like a new person. Mrs. W. A. TURNER. West Hanover, Mass. N. B.—If you decide to take Hood's flaresparilia, do not be induced to have any other. A ratification meeting will be held by the Inde-pendent Cleveland and Thurman Tariff Reform Club of the Pourteenth Assembly District at $15 East Minth street to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. Prominent speakers will address the meeting, and independent voters are cordially invited.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

100 DONES ONE DOLLAR.

"My health was poor, as I had trequent sick head-

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.